

Project manager – Recruitment Profile

Company:

Aqwise is involved in the development and implementation of innovative wastewater treatment technologies worldwide. Aqwise offers a variety of project implementation routes, from basic process design, to Design-Build turnkey deliveries, and all the way through completely financed, designed, constructed and operated projects.

Aqwise operates in various market segments, mainly municipal clients and industrial clients, such as food & beverage, pulp & paper, oil & gas, aquaculture and more.

Job Title:

Projects manager

Responsibilities:

- Full responsibility for building a waste water treatment plant, which requires managing infrastructure works in the fields of:
 - Civil engineering, constructions
 - Electro-mechanical equipment installation
 - Electrical engineering
 - Implementation of AqWise technology for waste water treatment
- Create and manage work plans and Gantt charts
- Read professional drawings and convert them into "bill of quantities"
- Locate required contractors , negotiate and close contracts to the company best interests
- Supervise working teams on the ground
- Constant monitoring and controlling of project's progress in order to meet the demands of budget, schedule and quality of work
- Manage customer relations – in relation to project's progress

Requirements:

- Experience of at least 5 years in managing big projects in relevant fields
- Education: Chemical engineer, Civil engineer, Mechanical engineer
- Effective interpersonal skills, assertiveness, ability to manage contractors
- Good ability to learn the field of wastewater treatment
- Independent and responsible, ability to work under a "long distance" manager
- Significant advantage: experience in water related industries
- To be prepared to travel abroad and stay in the field as required